

EU & International Employment Law

Editors: Stefan Corbanie, Elizabeth Gillow and Martin Hopkins,
Eversheds LLP

“A very welcome addition to the very limited range of material available on domestic employment law applicable in countries overseas”

Employment Lawletter

The only reference you need for authoritative, practical and up-to-date advice on all aspects of international employment law in 29 jurisdictions. EU & International Employment Law is a detailed guide to employment law and employee benefits in 18 EU member states, as well as Australia, Brazil, Canada, China, Hong Kong, Mexico, Norway, Republic of Korea, South Africa, Switzerland, the federal USA and the Czech Republic. A chapter on EU law is also included as well as comparative tables. Jurisdictional coverage is increasing to accommodate more EU accession countries.

The manual provides a wide range of advice, from an explanation of the general legal framework to more in-depth analysis of maternity rights, discrimination, health and safety, industrial relations, termination of employment and much more.
